

The Person Everyone (including God) Likes

“The Life of Paul” episode 5

Acts 9:26-27 11:19-24

Once someone called Jesus “good” to his face. Trying to make a point, Jesus replied, “No one is good but God alone.”

And yet God himself calls one person “good” in the Bible. Just one, no more. Who rates such a high compliment? Abraham? Moses? David? Daniel? Paul? Guess again. It’s a guy named Joe. That was his given name, anyway. But everyone knew him by his nickname, Barnabas. He was the kind of person everyone likes to be around. An encourager.
