

He Walked a Crooked Mile

"The Life of Paul" episode 6

Acts 13:1-12

There was a crooked man, and he walked a crooked mile.

The First Missionary Journey. It's a momentous event in church history. "The three missionaries shipped from Seleucia in the first days of the sailing season early in March A.D. 47 for the easy run to Cyprus, an obvious choice in that Barnabas was a Cypriot and the island had a substantial Jewish minority, large enough to raise a dangerous rebellion some fifty years later.... The apostles landed at Salamis, the commercial center of the eastern half ... where they "proclaimed the Word of God in the synagogues of the Jews." John Pollock, The Apostle
